Two U. S. GI's Sentenced as Spies

Czechs Reveal Verdict

Secrecy Shrouds 'Espionage' Case

PRAGUE—(INS)—Czechoslovakia announced today that it has sentenced two American soldiers to prison terms at hard labor for espionage.

An official announcement of a state court of the communist-controlled Prague government identified the GI's as Cpl. Alexander Hunter—"alias Jones" and Pvt. Clarence Hill, both with the occupation forces in Germany.

Hill was said to have received 12 years in prison, Jones 10.

American authorities in Prague said, however, that the men in question were Pvt. George R. Jones, Owensboro, Ky., and Pvt. Clarence F. Hill, Jackson, Miss.

The government announcement said that the two Americans were sentenced on Saturday. They were charged with illegally crossing the Czech frontier last December "with the intention of spying on Czechoslovakia."

The statement said that "in the course of these activities" the two U. S. soldiers were caught by secret police.

TRIAL KEPT SECRET

Prague sources said that the trial of the two GI's occurred in secret and that U. S. authorities were not informed of the proceedings until, apparently, today.

The American embassy said that it had not been formally notified of the sentences—which were announced at noon—but had learned of them from a news agency correspondent.

The embassy had been attempting to reach the soldiers since December. A U. S. spokesman stated that early in March, it was learned that Czechoslovakia intended to try the two soldiers, but the whereabouts of the GI's was unknown.

American requests to be allowed to visit the men were ignored.

The only direct contact with the two enlisted men since their arrest was a censored letter from Hill dated Jan. 15, when it was believed the soldiers were being held in a prison in Pilsen.

U. S. sources in Prague said that the men had been missing from Germany since early December and had been regarded as deserters.

American officials denied categorically that Hill and Jones had been sent on a "special mission."

City Head Threatened

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Mayor John M. Coyne of suburban Brooklyn reported today he had received several phone calls warning him to withdraw police from entrances to the strike-disrupted Fawick Air Flex company.

Three clashes between police and members of the CIO United Electrical Workers have occurred since the strike began 22 days ago.

Police were forced to use tear gas yesterday to rout approximately 150 strikers and sympathizers who attempted to halt cars carrying non-strikers into the plant.

Mayor Coyne said the last warning call came last night. An unidentified male voice told him to "watch out when you drive your car."

The mayor said he would ignore the threats, and police would continue on duty to "maintain law and order."

Twenty members of the union now are defendants in contempt of court proceedings brought in common pleas court by the company.

Firm Sued For Driver's 'Good Deed'

INDIANAPOLIS —(INS)—The Indiana Motor Bus company of Indianapolis, faced a $1,000 damage suit today because one of its drivers allegedly couldn't recognize a patch of poison ivy.

Mrs. Marjorie Boyer, 30, of Indianapolis, charged in her suit that the driver carried her from the bus when she fainted last August and placed her on the ground in the shade of a tree.

She said she was wearing a "sun-back" dress which offered no protection from the poison ivy in which she claimed the driver set her down.

Dead Girl's Mother Says Killer 'OK'

Deserves Chance For Freedom

MILWAUKEE — (UP) — Mrs. Albert Birmingham said today that Milton Babich, the 19-year-old youth who brought double tragedy into her home, is a "good kid who deserves a chance at freedom."

Babich has confessed that he killed Mrs. Birmingham's 16-year-old daughter, Patricia, weighted her body with a concrete building block, and threw it into the Milwaukee river.

He slew Patricia while attemping to silence her about the pregnancy of another daughter, Kathleen, 17, as result of an illicit love affair with him. He and Kathleen eloped and were married before Patricia's body was found and Kathleen lived with him five days, not knowing he had killed her sister.

Mrs. Birmingham withheld outright forgiveness of her son-in-law but said:

"Milton deserves a chance for freedom. He's a good kid."

Mrs. Birmingham, a pleasant-faced woman whose hands are work-worn from cooking and sewing for her large middle-class family, said she "supposed" Milton had been "tormented" into slaying Patricia because the girl taunted him about her sister's pregnancy.

"He's always been a good boy, very helpful and polite, whenever he was at our home," she said.

Mrs. Birmingham said she had received many letters and cards from persons throughout the country who offered their sympathy and help.

But some of the letters come from people who side with Babich and think she should do everything possible to help him.

Babich's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fabian Babich, said they also received telephone calls and letters from persons offering financial aid or advice on Babich's defence during his trial, expected to start next month.

Holdredge was attempting to teach his wife, Jane, to drive the family car.

She was attempting to park it.

She pinned Holdredge against a wall.

COLUMBUS I (INS) — State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson issued orders today to hold up payment for all vouchers for state construction until he can get additional examiners to investigate the expenditures.

Office manager Ray Bartholomew said the withholding order was "temporary." At the present time millions of dollars in state construction is under way.

FIRST CAMPAIGN BLOOD DRAWN—The first blood was drawn yesterday in Mansfield's thus-far almost non-existent primary campaign. But the blood-letting was not done in anger, it was done for mercy by the three men who are seeking the two nominations as candidate for mayor of Mansfield. Shown above waiting their turns, with thermometers in their mouths, are Thomas B. Wright and Charles A. Anglin. In the lower photo nurse Winnie Wise, Columbus, is performing the blood donor operation on Mayor Roy. W. Vaughn whose grin indicates that the procedure is virtually painless. Anglin is assured of the Democratic nomination since he has no opposition. Wright and Vaughn seek the GOP standard bearer's spot.

Falls Short Of Quota

Mansfield and Richland county yesterday gave 70 pints of blood for the National Red Cross blood bank, according to Mrs. Stuart Weaver, blood donor chairman of the local chapter.

Although that is 30 pints below the quota assigned to this community, it is four pints more than were contributed during the February visit. However, it falls far below the average for communities of comparable population, Red Cross workers said.

A report of blood contributed during the February visits throughout Ohio shows the Newark gave 223 pints in a two-day visit; London, 126. Bucyrus, 122; Marion 117, and Bellefontaine. 101 pints. The last four are for one-day visits.

Mrs. Weaver said there were about 70 registered for today's visit of the bloodmobile.

Germ-Laden Guinea Pig Found

Search Uncovers TB-Infected Animal

By NITA BRANSON

Search for a guinea pig, inoculated with TB germs and stolen from General hospital Sunday night, ended today at a home on Bartley avenue. Hospital officials said two boys who live on Sherman avenue admitted stealing the guinea pig and giving it to the small son in the Bartley avenue home. This morning it was found by hospital officials through the cooperation of C. C. Secrist, principal at Brinkerhoff school, according to Wayne A. Copeland, superintendent at General hospital.

The little animal was one of several guinea pigs and rabbits which the hospital keeps for inoculation purposes. This particular pig had been inoculated with TB germs in an effort to determine if a patient at the hospital had tuberculosis. The test was to have been completed Monday morning, but when officials went to get the guinea pig, they found it gone.

Last Saturday a lock and hasp were placed on the small wooden building which houses the animals because strange food in the house had indicated tampering, Copeland said.

Tests were to be made this afternoon by Dr. Burr Hathaway to determine if the animal had

The Female of the Species—

Housewife Seeks 'Kiss of Death' Job

EVARTS, Ky.. — (AP) — Mayor Elihu Bailey today was unconvinced that a Lexington, Ky., housewife could take over as police chief in this coal town and make a success of it.

He has an application, and two telephone calls, from Mrs. Pearl Katharine Burrus, 41, in which she proposed to bring law and order to Evarts by using tact and persuasion instead of pistols.

But Mayor Bailey had 210 other applications, from nearly every state in the union, to consider. And he doubted if a woman was the one to enforce the law in a town that has had five police chiefs since last August.

Coal miner John P. Ball, who lives in Evarts, agreed.

"Rather strange," was his reaction to Mrs. Burrus' application.

"I don't know what she wants it for, and I doubt if she could handle it."

But another miner, Clarence Brown, wasn't so sure. "She just might could do it." he said.

Mrs. Burrus, a short, rather stout housewife who comes from Madison county, not far from Evarts, said she would like to have two women deputies. She also counts on some help from her husband, Jimmy Burrus.

She was asking for a job that boasted little security. Of the five previous chiefs, one shot to death, two resigned after being shot at, one resigned from his jail cell after being arrested for drunkenness, and the fifth was senenced to prison for killing the man under indictment for shooting the second chief.

Ruling Steadies Market

Lower Margin Sparks Buying

NEW YORK—(UP)—Reduction of 33 1-3 per cent in margin requirements for listed stocks announced overnight produced an active, firmer stock market today. Bonds also edged higher. Cotton futures opened unchanged to 2 points higher.

The margin cut, effective tomorrow, reduces the margin on listed shares from 75 per cent to 50 per cent.

It attracted buying from many sources and the accumulation of orders was grouped into blocks ranging from 1,000 to 5,000 shares. Net gains ranged to 3 points, reflecting a thin market in which a moderate demand sends prices up rapidly.

Meanwhile, the Federal Reserve board's surprise order making it easier to speculate and invest in the stock market was interpreted as a go-slow warning against several of the administration's big tax and spending projects.

WALL STREET HAPPY

This interpretation came from inside the reserve board. Wall Street mildly celebrated the cut in margin trading requirements which should boost stock exchange business and broker' commissions.

Another slant came from senior board member Marriner S. Eccles who said: "The recession has been underway for several months."

The margin order was interpreted widely as an acknowledgement by the board that a deflationary economic trend is now well established.

Eccles said some recession was desirable, even healthy. He warned that it would be undesirable to combat it right now with all the props and cushions with which the government can oppose deflation. These shock absorbers should be applied gradually, Eccles held.

There was speculation here that the board contemplated future actions as conditions warranted, including lowering of bank reserve requirements to spur lending and further relaxation of regulation "W" by which the board controls the conditions of installment buying.

17 Killed In Ambush

TRIESTE — (INS) — Seventeen pro-Tito Yugoslav soldiers were reported today to have been ambushed and killed in a five-hour gun battle with pro-cominform Yugoslav guerrillas.

Yugoslavs crossing into the Anglo-American zone of Trieste said the incident took place Friday night near Tolmino, in the Yugoslav zone of Istria, 35 miles north of Trieste.

Anti-Tito underground groups are believed to be active in that area.

The pro-cominform band were said to have trapped the sixteen men and one officer while the latter were on patrol duty in a wooded area.

Thief's Loot Nearly a Ton!

CLEVELAND — (UP) — Stanley Prosek, 55, veteran employe of the Cleveland Transit system, was arrested early today by detectives who recovered "nearly a ton" of pennies, nickels and dimes he had taken from fare boxes over a long period.

Transit officials estimated the total value of the recovered loot at $7,000 and then began counting it coin-for-coin to determine the exact figure.

Prosek has been employed by the transit system for 30 years.

CINCINNATI — (AP) — An 86-year-old woman was reported in "serious" condition at General hospital today after having been beaten on the head with an iron coal stove shaker.

America Offered Air Bases

MEXICO CITY — (INS) — Nicaragua has offered the United States a 99-year lease on air bases and has agreed to grant other privileges to help the U. S. begin immediate construction of a Pacific-Atlantic canal.

The offer was made last night by Nicarauguan Defense Minister Anastasio Somoza. Somoza, who has long advocated a Nicaraguan canal, believes that the air bases would aid defense of the proposed inter-oceanic link, and would generally bolster continental security.

The Nicaraguan "strong man" declared:

"Nicaragua will give an option of 99 years to the United States for construction of a canal and necessary and just bases in the Gulf of Fonseca (on the Pacific) and the Corn Islands (in the Atlantic).

"The bases and facilities are available if the United States begins the immediate construction of the canal.

'ALWAYS ALLIED'

"Nicaragua, as during the last war, will always be allied with the United States and with the greatest pleasure would offer facilities for the construction of bases for defense of the canal and for continental security."

Proposals to build a canal across Nicaragua have been discussed by U. S. and Central American statesmen for more than half a century.

Recently, new proposals for the Nicaraguan project have aroused considerable attention.

These proposals embody an 11-mile cut across a narrow neck of land connecting the Pacific with Lake Nicaragua.

Vessels would travel 60 miles across the huge lake, then proceed another 90 miles down the San Juan river to the Atlantic port of Greytown.

Backers of the Nicaraguan canal emphasize that it would be 1100 miles shorter for ships which now make the trip from the U. S. through the Panamanian isthmus.

Vets Fight Conference

Cultural Group Starts On Tour

NEWARK, N. J. — (AP) — Delegates to the controversial "world peace" conference—embarking on a tour of American cities—ran into new picket threats today.

The second of a series of "cultural rallies for peace" is scheduled here tonight, with the New Jersey council of Arts, Sciences and Professions in the role of sponsor.

Plans are similar to those for the three-day round of oratory in which delegates from Soviet Russia and seven other foreign nations participated in New York last weekend.

The New York conference was characterized in advance by the U. S. State department as a sounding board for communist propaganda—a characterization which the sponsors of the meeting hotly denied.

Announcement of plans for the Newark session brought from veterans' organizations and other groups a wave of protests similar to those which greeted the New York conference. Pickets were promised by state leaders of the Catholic War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Disabled American War Veterans.

Longshoremen Again Strike

NEW YORK — (INS) — Canned goods, sugar, coffee and raw materials worth $100,000,000 lay dormant in 300 struck New York warehouses today.

The AFL International Longshoremen's association, headed by Joseph P. Ryan, called out its 1,500 members following a breakdown in wage negotiations.

The union is demanding a 13-cent-an-hour increase retroactive to Oct. 1, 1948, from members of the Warehousemen's association of the Port of New York, incoporated.

House Members Promise Fight

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Administration leaders in the Senate and House agreed today legislation to extend rent controls 15 months could be delivered to President Truman by nightfall.

The forecasts came from Senator Lucas (Ill), majority leader of the Senate, and Rep. McCormack (Mass), the House Democratic floor leader.

Their optimism wasn't dimmed by Senator Bricker (R-Ohio), who said he might move to send the bill back to the joint Senate-House conference committee which approved it yesterday. In the House several members indicated they plan to blast the bill.

The Senate made action on the compromise bill its first order of business today.

At midnight Thursday the present rent law expires. Democratic leaders expect Mr. Truman to sign the extension measure once it gets to the White House, even though it isn't nearly as tight a bill as he wanted.

Mr. Truman asked for a two-year extension and more stringent controls.

FIGHT 'HOME RULE'

While it would continue federal rent controls through June 30, 1950, the bill contains a broad "home rule" provision which lets states, cities, towns and villages get rid of controls any time the state governor approves.

Foes of that section have contended it would wreck rent control. Backers of the provision argue that local communities are in the best position to know when controls no longer are needed in their areas.

The provision of the measure stirring most of the trouble in the Senate and House is the one directing the federal housing expediter to fix rents at a level giving landlords a "fair net operating income."

Congress members were wary about saying what effect the "fair income" provision will have on rents. Even some members of the Senate-House committee acknowledged privately they have no idea.

Officials at the housing expediter's declined to estimate what might happen to rents, pending further study of the provision.

Reds Invade Indo-China

PARIS — (INS) — Chinese communists were reported today to have invaded French Indo-China, pillaged the border town of Moncay, and killed 30 persons.

French dispatches from Hanio, said that the French garrison in Moncay, in Tonkin province in north Indo-China, had taken refuge in a fort. Fighting was said to be still in progress, with the Chinese holding part of the town.

The surprise attack by the Chinese was said to have begun Sunday afternoon.

The French troops were reported evacuating some of their wounded by plane.

French reinforcements were said to have been dispatched to Moncay.

CINCINNATI — (AP) — Arthur Welsh, 50, stood nude in his home here last night, held a knife against his chest and told police "I'll kill myself if you try taking me to jail."

The officers seized him and took him to jail.

A few hours later jailers found Welsh's body hanging in his jail cell. His body was taken to the city morgue.

'Trouble-Makers' Remark Fails To Hide Truman-Congress Fiasco

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S attack on the punching-dummy which he labelled "the trouble-makers" would be comic if he were a mayor of Chicago in a squalid scuffle with the city council.

But, coming from the President of the United States at the start of a four-year term, this poor attempt to blame some imaginary force for the defeat which he suffered at the hands of his own party's 81st Congress is pathetic and ominous. The people of the United States are stuck with this ignorant alumnus of the political underworld of Kansas city and must take full responsibility for all he does and pay the penalty for his deliberate misconduct and earnest failures.

Ordinarily the partisan opposition would delight in the rout of the president in office, but few Americans can close their minds to the fact that this man's errors might be calamities weighing on us all.

Mr. Truman has tried to represent his licking by his own Congress as no licking at all but a serene working of the American system and to blame "the trouble-makers" for spreading the popular impression that he did get licked.

Truman had never shown any interest in any of the proposals lumped together as "civil rights" during his schooling years in the Pendergast criminal machine in Kansas city. With his knowledge, assuming that he was not a drooling imbecile, this mob stole elections by stuffing the ballot boxes through several standard methods, all of them felonious.

It does not appear thay any person was denied his right to vote and his right that his vote should be counted in determining the result because of the person's race or religion. But thousands were thus offended for the reason that they detested the vicious pack of divekeepers, prostitutes, drug-peddlers and common gunmen who were Harry Truman's henchmen.

And, down to the very end, Mr. Truman fought to keep his corrupt idol and chief out of prison for his crimes against the civil rights of the community.

ACTUALLY, Truman's ignorance of the importance and function of Congress was demonstrated in frightening fashion soon after the Democratic convention last summer.

Truman called the 80th Congress into special session for no other purpose than to discredit the legislative arm of the government. He picked a fight not only with the 80th Congress which the Republicans controlled by choice of the voters, but Congress itself, as an institution.

At the special session he delivered a stilted, painfully dishonest speech over the heads of the Congress of the United States to his partisan adherency and the feeling against him was so bitter that he entered the chamber in almost dead silence and left it in shame. Only three hands reached out to shake his hand as he walked up the aisle and out.

So the defeat of the Truman social and civil affectations by the 81st session of the Congress of the United States, was a licking for Harry S. Truman.

He picked the fight and forgot to duck and got his brains knocked out and it was no dirty doing of any columnists or commentators but a proper comeuppance for an impudent incompetent who has twice admitted publicly since the first of the year that there probably are a million men in the United States who could do his job better.

Use of Time-Worn Gags Threatens Current Revival of Vaudeville

THE CURRENT resurgence of vaudeville will be a temporary phenomenon if the performers insist on reviving the material that sent it to oblivion. Some comics never change theirs. One of them is still telling a dated gag about "Abie's Irish Rose".

Ingrid Bergman says she is self-conscious about her height. Imagine anyone with all her attributes being self-conscious about anything. . .A current flicker from France is only six hours long. . .The way the N. Y. Times reports Mae's hip-grinding: "Miss West's distinctive undulations". . .Item in the papers I don't believe ever was said: That Miss Bankhead used the phrase, "Pravda is full of prune-juice!"

Broadway signery that holds the orbs: The enormous portrait of Jennifer Jones painted on the Rivoli. . .Yappiest telecast is the 5-minute celebrity-interview which wastes 3 mi-utes on commershills. . .Dinah Shore's blues-cooing always relieves you of yours. . ."The Red Pony" is one of the slicker boy-meets-horse sagas because the scenario was embroidered by John Steinbeck.

The squawk by some of the Hollywood writers that they were "let go" after testifying against some of the alleged Reds is weakened by the fact that Sam Wood, who also stood up to be counted, is still on the MGM payroll. . .Movie patrons won't stand for this sortathing much longer: Esther Williams strips down to her swimsuit for just a mere one-quick-dip in the film, "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" . . .Grace Hartman's biggest laugh in the Mary Margaret McBride travesty (in "All for Love") is the line: "Next to entertainment, I like television test."

Shows come and go but none offers more belt-buckle guffaws than "Born Yesterday". . .Rita Hayworth's father (in an article) defends her galivanting. . .Talk about Dreamboats: Have you adored Patricia Morison in "Kiss Me, Kate?" Such a face! . . .Alexis Smith comes through with flying Technicolors. Her emerald orbs and red tresses make a terrific parlay for the Miss Wonderful sweepstakes.

Two of the plays that appear to be surviving the critical frowns: "Madwoman of Chaillot" and "The Big Knife". . . The ditty, "A Rosewood Spinet," is popular, but they are plugging it into an early tomb. . .Little Margaret O'Brien saw herself in "Little Women" for the second time, and while grownups choked with emotion she was in stitches.

You-Can-Never-Tell Item: "Life with Father" was an all-time stage-gusher and the film version was serenaded by the reviewers. Yet it was a box-office disappointment. . .Jonathan Lucas, the new dancing star at the Copa, disguised himself as a Jap and got behind their lines The wounds he suffered hospitalized him for many months.

City Tavern Permits Exceed State Quota

Mansfield has 23 establishments selling whisky by the drink under a D-3 license, which is four more places than is permissible under the 1940 census, according to state liquor board figures.

Nineteen night clubs are operating in the city, the exact number permitted under the 1940 census figures. Private club licenses number 13, six less than would be permitted.

Richland county is permitted 41 each of D-3, night club and private club licenses.

The county has 42 establishments operating under D-3 licenses, 19 private clubs, and 27 night clubs.

The county is one over on D-3's but has fewer night clubs and private clubs than would be permitted under the 1940 census figures.

In all, 21 Ohio counties have more D-3 bar permits that they are entitled to under the census figures.

The state liquor law allows one night club permit for each 2,000 population and one bar permit for each 1500 population.

Counties listed as having both more bar and more night club permits than they should have under the 1940 census were Ashtabula, Erie, Jefferson, Lorain, Summit, Trumbull, Cuyahoga and Hamilton.

CALL ME A TAXI—

A British visitor to Mansfield is taking quite a kidding about her long taxi ride from Windsor, Canada. A little more than a week ago, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Miller, 648 Yale drive, received a call from Windsor. Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. Alfred Witherow, was on the other end of the line. She had just arrived by plane from Vancouver. "Never mind coming up for me," Mrs. Witherow told her daughter. "I'll just take a taxi down." Mrs. Miller, a bit startled by the casualness, explained that it would be quite a long drive. The Millers went to Windsor to meet her. After a week's stay in the U. S., Mrs. Witherow is now beginning to realize that the U. S. is a pretty big place. A life-long native of the Fiji islands, she had been in America only once before — that time in 1937 when she took a short train trip through after attending the coronation of the king of England. The Millers plan to show Mrs. Witherow more of this vast country by October when she will leave again for her home.

Ford Tells Club of Needs

Time-Saving Plan Offered

Acting Postmaster Curtis L. Ford suggests new and different type sub-stations as one means of breaking the log jam at the Mansfield post office.

Speaking before the Mansfield Exchange club yesterday, Ford said classified sub-stations from which postmen could work might be necessary if the city does not get its proposed new downtown post office within a reasonable time.

Now, all postmen work out of the main post office.

A point in favor of classified stations is that less time is spent by the postman "deadheading," between the post office and their routes, Ford said. "Deadheading" is the term used by postmen for the wasted time spent in traveling to their routes.

With classified sub-stations the men would work from the office nearest the neighborhood of their route.

Ford explained the classified is different from the contract sub-stations, now in operation at four locations throughout the city, in that the classified substation would provide complete mail facilities for the postmen's routes.

Since 1914 the Mansfield population has trebled and the postal workers have been increased to 120, but the volume of mail is more than six times the amount handled in 1914, Ford said.

More postal employes is not the only answer, he said. Lack of space is the major hindrance to efficient mail handling, he added. Mail clerks are virtually climbing over one another in their work at the post office, Ford declared.

County Plans Vehicle Sale

Esbenshade Loses First Fight of Season

Relays Wheels Moving

The wheels were meshing faster today as the plans for a bigger and better Mansfield Relays are nearing completion.

Director Harry Mehock expects the 18th edition of the country's top high school track and field event, April 22-23, to bring the biggest field of contestants since the 1939 running. Ten years ago some 115 high schools provided 1,500 contestants.

Last year, the count was 64 high schools and 949 individuals. However, the decrease in schools and individual competiors is attributed to the fact that there are five times as many relay events on the docket now compared to 1939.

However, track coaches all over the state have assured Mehock they will be here for the blue ribbon special among cinder events.

Springfield won the championship last year with 31.7 points while Dayton Dunbar and Columbus Central tied for second with 23. Cleveland West Tech was fourth with 19. The Wildcats won only two first places to take the title.

For the first time since the Relays were inaugurated in 1927, Mansfield citizens will not be "tapped" individually for Relays funds. All expenses for the event were raised in the big Tyger club funds drive last fall.

However, the assistance of many Mansfielders is still needed to make the Relays a success. Hank Richards, chairman of the housing committee, is in the midst of a campaign to provide 200 free sleeping rooms for youngsters travelling a long distance for the affair.

Always in the past Mansfielders have given rooms and free breakfasts to visiting trackmen. Any persons wishing to provide rooms for the youngsters may call Richards at 4935-4.

Relays committees as announced today by Bill Daugherty, vice president of the Tyger club, are: Earl Troll, general chairman; Richards, housing; Sandy Creveling, reception; Buck Weaver, transportation; Roscoe McGinty, officials and coaches, and Fred Tharp, publicity.

Already Mehock has mailed entry blanks to 1,500 schools in Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and Michigan. Ambridge, Pa., ran 11th last year to lead the "foreign" entrants.

Mehock's Tyger track team begins its Relays preparations Saturday against Columbus East at Stadium field.

Top Crowd Watches 10 Match Card

By CHARLEY STINE

Mansfield's Don Esbenshade lost his first fight of the year last night as the Friendly House entertained its largest crowd ever with ten action-filled bouts.

Some 700 persons, many of them standing, witnessed the card in the Colby and Earick showrooms.

Esbenshade, getting his first crack at a main event performance, lost out on a split decision to Akron Golden Gloves Champion Dick Butcher.

The stocky, Senior high student looked as good as any previous time out but had trouble solving the low, charging style of his speedy opponent. Both boys were in good condition at the end. It was Esbenshade's third loss in 12 fights.

The expected knock-down-drag-out bout between Ohio AAU champion Red Mathias and Mansfield's Tom Weaver came off about the way it was anticipated.

Weaver, giving away about six inches in height and much more in reach, carried the fight to Mathias all the way but could not overcome the size handicap. Mathias won a unanimous decision.

TOP BRAWLING

Best bout of the night was won by Friendly House's Howard Carney over Howard Dixon of Galion. The pair slugged it out toe-to-toe for two rounds before both grew arm-weary in the third.

Dixon had the best in the early minutes as he ripped punch after punch to Carney's head, yet only the bell saved Dixon in the first heat. Carney finally worked his way in and landed a haymaker which stretched Dixon out just before the gong clanged.

The second round was much the same thing with Dixon being down for a nine count early in the round. Later he had Carney out on his feet but was too armweary to do anything about it.

Bill Eccles and Bill Eberhardt, two of the popular local boys, both won decisions. Eccles' was a split count over Akron's Ray Harris but Eberhardt had little trouble with John Chalfant of the same city.

The promising career of the 116-pound Cecil Wright of the Friendly House came to its probable end when he throw his right shoulder out of place and was unable to answer the bell for the second round.

Wright had the same difficulty in the Friendly House tournament earlier in the year.

Only knockout was a surprising one by Howard Reep of Ashland over Ulysses Caloway, Friendly House, in the second round.

Junior Lowery, 116, Marion, decisioned Bruce Heinberger, 118, F-H.

Jack Lafoulette, 116, Akron, won on a TKO over Cecil Wright, 116, F-H, in the second round.

Howard Carney, 124, F-H, decisioned Howard Dixon, 128, Galion.

Dick James, 131, Marion, decisioned Walter Stiegelo, 129, Akron.

Howard Reep, 131, Ashland, knocked out Ulysses Caloway, 132, F-H, in 0.15 of the second round.

Jim Reynolds, 135, Ashland, decisioned Larry Inscore, 132, F-H.

Red Mathias, 191, Galion, decisioned Tom Weaver, 185, F-H.

Bill Eccles, 161, F-H, won a split decision from Ray Harris, 160, Akron.

Bill Eberhardt, 135, F-H, decisioned John Chalfant, 135, Akron.

Dick Butcher, 156, Akron, won a split decision from Don Esbenshade, 157, F-H.

Ken Woerth Out With Split Digit

Madison high school's baseball team suffered its first casualty yesterday as Sophomore Kenny Woerth sustained a split finger on his right hand.

Woerth got the injury when reaching for a wide throw in a warm-up drill. He had been the leading candidate for the catcher's position but that spot will now probably go to Gene Riblet when Madison opens the season Thursday afternoon against Galion in Blue Goose park.

Bucks Can Make Swim History

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Swimming history will be in the making if Ohio State's heavily favored Buckeyes cop the National AAU indoor title at Daytona Beach, Florida, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Ohio State will be gunning for its fourth consecutive AAU indoor title—a feat never before accomplished. Last year the Bucks staged a stunning reversal of form after dropping the Western Conference and National Collegiate crowns before upsetting Michigan.

Skipper Mike Peppe is confident that the scarlet and gray aquatic aces can add tankdom's "grand slam" by capturing the AAU crown. Peppe fears most the New Heaven swimming club, a crew coached by Bob Kiputh and comprising past and present Yale tankers. Iowa, which garnered runner-up laurels at the National Collegiates, will also be tough to beat.

Barrel - Chester Bill Smith, world record holder in the middle - distances who rounds out his collegiate career will seek to repeat his triumph in the 220 and 440-yard events.

A switch in AAU championship procedure will allow preliminaries to be run off in the morning and finals in the afternoon. The break may find Smith competing in the century, with an opportunity to score a triple-triumph.

Halo Hirose, ineligible for the Buckeyes in the NCAA, will give the Bucks added insurance in the sprints and 220-yard freestyle.

Bruce Harlan, Olympic champion, is a cinch to annex the diving crowns. The Buckeyes also boast such springboard artists as Jackie Calhoun, Johnny Simpson and Hobie Billingley.

Bob Degroot, Dorsal Kingpin, may score an individual "grand slamm" by annexing the AAU crown, a championship he won in 1947. Degroot also swam a leg on the Bucks 300-yard medley team which included Bob Bartells and Smith.

Two New Basketball Rules Designed to End Stalling

SEATTLE—(AP)—Two regulations designed to lessen stalling and prevent late-game rough-house play were announced yesterday by the national basketball committee of the United States and Canada.

The new rule figuring to curb fouling applies to the last two minutes of play.

It provides that on each foul committed in the final 120 seconds, a personal foul will be charged against the offending player, but it will be treated as a technical foul.

That is, the player fouled will be given a free throw, but the ball will be out of play. After the toss, the ball will be given on an out-of-bounds to the team which was fouled.

Under the old rule, such fouls were treated as personals and the team against which the offense was committed was given the option of taking the free throw or taking the ball out-of-bounds. In most cases, the team in possession—generally being ahead on points—would take the ball out-of-bounds rather than jeopardize possession. Feeling it had no points to lose, the trailing team often fouled heavily in an effort to get the ball.

The second major change was aimed at stalling by the team in possession.

The new rule makes it mandatory for an official to call a held ball when a "closely guarded" player withholds the ball from play in front court for five seconds without an apparent effort to dribble, pass or shoot.

In regard to the "two-minute" rule on fouling, the rules committee decided that neither players nor spectators will be notified when the two-minute provisions go into effect. The officials are expected to watch for a timers' signal when the final 120-second period is reached.

FIRST TIME OUT

In high school games, the rule will go into effect with the first officials' time out or dead ball that occurs after the first five minutes of the final quarter.

In high school and other games played in quarters the committee wrote a new rule providing for the ball to be put in play by a center jump at the start of the second and fourth quarters. Previously, it was put in play from out-of-bounds.

Dempsey Wants To Join Louis

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Joe Louis, in town today, said that Jack Dempsey may hook up with the Brown Bomber's newly-formed international boxing club.

Joe, who gave up his heavyweight title last month to go into the promotional end of the game, said Dempsey had indicated he would like to join the set-up.

Ty Cobb won the American League batting championship 12 out of 13 seasons between 1907 and 1919.

Bonus Player Rules Change In Baseball

CINCINNATI — (UP) — Three changes in the rules regarding "bonus players" were made today by the office of baseball commissioner A. B. Chandler in an effort to cut down on the number of new players in that special category.

The most important switch raised the ceilings on bonuses that can be paid without the player being classified as a "bonus player."

The new standard will be $6,000 ceiling in tripe A and double A leagues, $4,500 in class A, and $3,000 in classes B, C, and D. Until now the ceilings have been $6,000 in the major leagues, $4,000 in triple A, $3,000 in double A, $2,500 in class A, $1,500 in class B, $1,200 in class C, and $800 in class D.

Under existing rules that continue a player who received more than the specified amount as an inducement to sign becomes a "bonus player" and as such is subject to draft by a higher club at any time and cannot be optioned out.

Raising the limits will permit teams to pay higher bonuses without having the players put in the special "bonus" category.

A second change in the rules makes the bonus ceilings apply to the whole contract, instead of being paid over in yearly installments. A third change allows a bonus player who is drafted or awarded on waivers to be optioned out by his new team for one year.

Sammy's Putting Of All Things, Wins Playoff

GREENSBORO, N.C. — (AP) — For years folks who've watched Sam Snead play golf have marveled at his tremendous drives. Later, after watching him blow a short putt, they've observed sadly, "if he could only putt."

But the slammer from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., really had it all the way around yesterday. He racked up a two under par 69 to beat Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago by two strokes in their 18-hole playoff for the Greensboro open title.

Snead's 69 was made in a steady rain. A gallery of more than 1,000 was on hand to watch Snead become the first three-time winner in Greensboro history.

Sammy pocketed $2,000 for his first tournament victory of the season and moved up to fifth place in the year's money list with $6,360.83. Mangrum's $1,400 runnerup purse sent him to the top with $8,607.50. Gary Middlecoff of Memphis is No. 2 with $8,296.66.

Pirates, A's Boast Best Ball Marks

NEW YORK—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates and the Philadelphia Athletics, for the second straight week, continue to boast the best record in the National and American leagues, respectively, in the "grape fruit" league.

Including "B" games, the Pirates have won 13 games and lost only four for a .765 record. Five of these triumphs were gained at the expense of minor league opposition.

The Athletics have won 12 games and lost five for a .706 mark. Seven of Philadelphia's conquests were over minor league teams.

Eddie Dyer's St. Louis Cardinals sport the best record for teams that have played against major league opposition only. The Cards have won 10 games and lost six. The New York Yankees have the best mark in the American league, having won seven and lost eight against strictly big time opposition.

FREDERICKTOWN — Some 240 students and townspeople turned out tohonor Fredericktown high school's county football and basketball champions at a banquet held last night in the school auditorium.

Dr. Jimmy Hull of Columbus, former Ohio State basketball great, gave the featured address in which he urged the athletes to continue their education.

"There is a college in Ohio for every boy regardless of his financial condition, "Hull said.

Letters to 35 members of the two sport squads were presented by Coach Don Sweegan. The annual affair was sponsored by the Lions club.

Indians Win 4th Straight From Padres, 10 to 5

Trio of Home Runs Give Tribe Margin

TUCSON, Ariz.—(INS)—The Cleveland Indians came home to their spring base at Tucson today with a four-game winning streak and their batters and pitchers both in top form.

The Tribe gave one of its best demonstrations of hitting power in walloping Cleveland's San Diego farmhands, 10-5, yesterday in the Indians' last game of an extended California tour.

The victory marked a successful end to the barnstorming trip that started out with five one-run losses in six games.

The Clevelanders were to carry a 10-7 record into their battle today with the Chicago Cubs in the first of six Tucson clashes.

The Tribesmen blasted out three home runs and 12 hits to smash their Pacific Coast league farm club behind the eight-hit twirling of Lyman Linde and Will Hafey, a pair of promising rookies.

Al Rosen, Joe Gordon and Ray Murray each hit for the circuit, the latter with two mates aboard.

San Diego scored first in the opening inning, but Rosen then knotted the county with his second-inning homer. The Padres then went ahead, 4-1, in the third.

Cleveland got back one run in the fourth and went to work in the fifth with four more when Gordon and Murray both connected for their circuit smashes.

SEW UP GAME

San Diego sliced the lead to one run in the last of the fifth, but Cleveland sewed up the victory with one marked in the sixth and three in the eighth.

All San Diego's runs came on homers, two by Max West and one by Dain Clay.

Following yesterday's game, it was considered almost certain Linde, Hafey and Infielders Bobby Wilson and Artie Wilson would be assigned to the Padres for the 1949 season.

A's Release Pair . .

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — (UP) — A reduction was made in the Philadelphia Athletics' squad today with the optioning of outfielder Ray Coleman and infielder Billy Demars to the Buffalo Bisons.

The A's, who dropped a 5 to 3 decision to the Toronto Maple Leafs yesterday, traveled to Fort Lauderdale today for another tussle with the international league club.

★

Paul Looks Good . .

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — (UP) — The New York Yankees, who have had too little to crow about this spring, hoped they had a new "find" today in pitcher Paul Hinrichs.

The 24-year-old right-hander, picked up for $40,000 last winter when he was declared a free agent from the Detroit Tigers' farm system, stopped the Philadelphia Phillies during a three-inning stint yesterday to run his shutout streak through 13 innings.

Hinrichs didn't get into the game until the fourth inning, and the Phillies already had blasted Bob Porterfield for seven runs which assured them a 7 to 3 victory. It was the Yankees eighth setback in 16 games.

★

Reds Seek Fourth . .

BRADENTON, Fla. — (UP) — The Cincinnati Reds were expected to throw pitchers Red Lively and Kent Peterson at the Boston Braves today as they sought their fourth victory in five games with the national league champions.

Boston outfielder Clint Conatser who suffered a concussion when struck in the head by a pitched ball in a game a Tampa Sunday, was expected to be released from the hospital today.

★

Rugged Action . . .

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. — (UP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates and the Chicago White Sox play another in their series of spring exhibition games today, but they probably won't duplicate the action that went on at Pasadena yesterday.

The White Sox exploded a grand-slam home run and staged a triple play, but the Pirates won the game, 15 to 11. It was Pittsburgh's ninth win in the last 10 games.

The Pirates matched Steve Souchock's four-run homer with a bases-full roundtripper. Ralph Kiner walloped it off Randy Gumbert to highlight a 12-run fourth inning in which the Bucs wrecked an 8 to 0 lead.

Later in the game, Kiner was struck in the head by a line drive off the bat of teammate Les Fleming. The Pirates' star outfielder walked off the field under his own power and examination showed he suffered no serious injury.

★

A 'Thrower' Again . . .

BRADENTON, Fla. — (AP) — Boston Braves pitcher Warren (Lefty) Spahn says he is going back to being a "thrower instead of a pitcher. Maybe I can do as well as I did in 1947."

Spahn had a 21-10 record in 1947. "I cut loose that season with everything I had and the result was a good year," he says. "I relied on my fast ball with a change of pace and an occasional curve."

"For some reason or other, I can't explain it now," he adds. "I decided to be a control pitcher and not a thrower in 1948." His record last season was 15-12.

★

Behrman Tough . .

PHOENIX, Ariz. — (AP) — Hank Behrman, strong armed right-hander obtained by the New York Giants from Brooklyn Saturday, made his first start last night an impressive one.

Behrman pitched three hitless and scoreless innings as the Giants defeated a Mexican all-star team, 12-2.

★

Needs Players . . .

ORLANDO, Fla. — (AP) — Manager Joe Kuhel of the Washington Senators is bearing down on the front office, demanding more ball players.

He made it plain yesterday the situation is alarming, and warned that his regulars are being overworked for lack of reserves.

SWIM STAR—Jim Garrison, Mansfield sophomore, is one of nine Wittenberg swimmers to win a varsity letter during the 1948-49 season. The Tigers won nine of 12 meets. Garrison swam the breast-stroke events.

2 Bowling 5's Roll In ABC

Two of Mansfield's top bowling teams will make their marks in the 46th annual American Bowling Congress tournament at Atlantic City today and tomorrow. They are the leading Bissman's team of the City A league and Liederkranz of the North Central Ohio Travelling league.

Rolling for Bissman's are Art and Bob Hilborn, Floyd Messmore, Johnny Leppo, Phil Warga and Kenny Carlisle. Liederkranz has Orlie Grable, Harold Selby, Frank Burton, Red Burger, Carl Englehorn and John DeYarmon.

Bellville, Ontario County Favorites

Co-favorites for the third annual Richland county track meet May 7 will likely be the one-two punch of Bellville and Ontario, currently Richland county's top athletic powers.

Ontario won the first meet two years ago and Bellville won last year with Ontario second. The two schools were co-champions in the county basketball league and then were champion and runner-up in the county tournament.

Ontario may rate a slight edge by boasting of the last year's No. 1 individual scorer, Richie Hunt. Hunt won the pole vault and 100-yard dash last year and finished second in the 220-yard dash and 220 low hurdles.

Coach Dick Casad plans to devote full time to rounding his track team into form this spring as baseball will not be a part of the program. Practice will start around the first of April and meets are planned with John Simpson and Johnny Appleseed junior highs and Bellville. Casad would like to add at least one more. All meets will be on the road since Ontario has no track.

At least 25 men are expected out for the sport, including freshmen who profited by last year's 7th and 8th grade track program. Lettermen back are Hunt, Paul Farst (pole vault), Don Terman (high jump, broad jump and 440), Gene Henke (high jump), Ken Gabor (mile, 880), Jim Comstock (mile), Ronald Leathers (mile), Charles Hammer (shot put). Homer Fox (standing broad jump.)

Terman was second in the broad jump and third in the 440 last year while Gabor took third in the 880.

Bill Doherty, Villanova's 155-pound football quarterback, received a special award as outstanding back in the Philadelphia district last season.

Disputed Boxing Decisions Heap Up On Commission

NEW YORK — (AP) — Eddie Eagan, chairman of the New York State athletic commission, today had another disputed boxing decision tossed into his lap for investigation.

This one involves the split victory awarded to light heavyweight Nick Barone of Syracuse over Joey Taylor of Binghamton, N. Y., at Syracuse Friday night —much to the local indignation of a majority of the 6,700 fans present.

The circumstances were strikingly similar to the Jake La Motta-Robert Villemain affair in Madison Square Garden Friday night. La Motta also was awarded a two-to-one triumph.

Eagan and Commissioner C. B. Powell held a closed inquiry on that fight yesterday and wound up by suspending Judge Harold Barnes and Referee Harry Ebbets indefinitely.

Hall Booked For Return Wrestling Go

Stacy Hall, the Columbus city detective, wants another crack at Whitey Whittler in the Mansfield wrestling ring.

Halls feels that the Dutch ruffian needs taming and he's the man who can do it. Whitey's rough mat tactics have paid off with three straight victories in Mansfield and Hall was his latest victim in a rousing finale last Saturday.

Promoter Clete Kauffman has acceded to Hall's wishes and has booked the two grapplers for a re-match Saturday night in the Armory. Whittler felled Referee Jack Smithers last week knocking him into Hall who was trying a flying tackle. Then the Dutchman jumped on for an easy pin to end the match.

The semi-final will pit Karol Krauser against Wild Bill Zimovich the ex-Marine. Krauser is one of the lads to fall before Whittler while Zimovich's only appearance under Kauffman's banner resulted in a win over Pancho Valentino.

Opening the show will be Frankie Talaber and Ronnie Etichison. Talaber is a former junior heavyweight champion, having lost his crown to Johnny Demchuk three or four years ago.

Lee Sala Wins 53rd In Ring

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Lee Sala, a left-hooking middleweight from Donora, Pa. today held his 53rd victory in 54 professional fights.

But any elation he might feel would have to be tempered with the knowledge that Georgie Small of Brooklyn could take the Sala Sunday punch again and again and still put up a good fight.

There were no knockdowns, but Sala drew blood from Small's eye in the sixth. Referee Joe Sedely called in 6 to 3 for Sala, with one round even. Judge Herb Williams gave the Donora fighter a 6-4 margin; and Judge Charlie Bill saw it 5-4-1.

THE large part of the jigsaw puzzle marked "Costs" represents what the railroads spend to keep them running efficiently. Everything the railroads buy has doubled in price since 1939.

The small part of the puzzle marked "Rates" represents money the railroads get for their services. The reason it is so much smaller is very simple. Railroad charges have not kept pace with costs! Since 1939, freight rates have increased only 52% and passenger fares even less—a mere 25%.

Now the puzzle is this: How are the railroads able to operate efficiently on these low rates while costs are twice as high? Well, here's the answer in one word—Investment! For the past 25 years, the railroads have been plowing back their earnings—2 dollars for new equipment for every dollar paid out in dividends. As a result, the railroads are able to do a better job at great savings for the manufacturer, the supplier and of course, you, the public.

But that kind of progress can't go on if earnings today are kept too low. Like other companies, the railroads need a fair profit for the services they perform. That's the only way they can keep on doing the fine job that has made the American railroads the standard of the world in dependable, economical transportation!

Good earnings TODAY mean better service TOMORROW!

Nelson Dodd Campers to Hold Reunion In City April 16

A reunion of boys and men who have treked down the trails at Camp Nelson Dodd will be held at the Mansfield YMCA April 16 from 1:30 to 5 p. m., Robert W. Schmidt, YMCA youth director, announced today.

The reunion will feature a "Typical Day in Camp," including everything from the morning dip to taps at night.

Louis Jisa, chairman of the Mansfield YMCA camp committee and a member of the Ohio Camp Nelson Dodd committee, is arranging the program of activities for the typical camp day and will be assisted by a group of high school students who are camp enthusiasts.

Students working on the day's activities are Jack Kindel, Neil Roller, Walter Sapyta, Elliott Kibler, William Reister and Jack Pierce.

A. R. Deiss, director of Camp Nelson Dodd, will speak at the afternoon's program with a presentation of the average talk he gives to the boys in camp each day in the summer.

Boys who are planning to go to the camp this summer and their parents have been invited to the reunion to see what the camp offers in outdoor recreation.

A simulated campfire will "burn" during the afternoon in the YMCA's gym to represent the annual fire at the camp with the candlelight service held at the conclusion of each camping period.

Canoes will be "launched" in the "Y's" pool for a demonstration of canoeing and life-saving practices.

Both veterans who are now in school and those who have not yet entered any educational institution are required to have the proper certificate for this summer's training—a supplementary certificate for those in school now and an original certificate for those not in training at this time.

Ohio Realtors Balk at Cut In Bond Vote

The Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards has sent a bulletin to all members of the General Assembly calling their attention to several bills now before the legislature which provide for a reduction of the vote requirement for bond issues and tax levies.

The bulletin points out maintaining the 65 per cent vote requirement is necessary to protect property owners who pay the taxes levied on real estate.

The realtors association argues if passage of additional taxes is made too easy, taxing subdivisions will be tempted to place issues on the ballot which have little merit and may pass.

Thousands Storm Sale

BOSTON — (AP) — Five thousand men and women stormed Filene's basement Monday for a first-since-the-war sale of men's suits, topcoats and overcoats at one price $11.

H. D. Hodgkinson, general manager of Filene's — which calls itself the world's largest specialty store — estimated 3,000 persons were jammed into a separate basement section three minutes after the doors opened at 8:30 a. m. The remainder of the store does not open until noon on Monday.

All suits and coats were on racks on which large signs designated sizes. Each suit coat bore a number. The vest and pants already were boxed and bore a corresponding number.

There were approximately 5,000 suits, topcoats and overcoats on sale. All sales were for cash and there were no alterations.

Liquor Officers, Deputies Launch Six Anti-Gambling Raids

Crackdown Starts In Cincinnati

Slot Machines, Handbooks Taken

CINCINNATI — (AP) — County police and State Liquor department enforcement officers took turns in leading the way yesterday in a series of Hamilton county gambling raids that netted slot machines and handbook equipment.

There were six raids during the day and night and they brought to 13 the number since last Wednesday.

Last week Walter Mitchell, chairman of the state liquor control board, centered attention on Cincinnati by declaring handbook operations in taverns were more extensive here than in any other city in the state.

One of the raids yesterday was at the Sunset club.

Liquor department enforcement officers paid a "visit" to that club Saturday but were defied by the manager because the establishment's liquor license had expired.

Frank M. Acton, chief enforcement officer in this area, promised at the time he'd be back—and he was. Ray Molloy, the club manager, again refused to admit the officers without a search warrant but Acton ordered his men into the club. He said they seized pay-off slips, racing forms and other handbook equipment.

Then the enforcement agents moved into downtown Cincinnati and raided Bader's cafe. They said a handbook was being operated there by telephone and they cited Mildred Turner, the manager. The cafe has a D-1 and D-2 liquor license.

While all that was going on, the officers from the sheriff's office also were busy.

They raided two places in nearby Fairfax.

Carl G. Meyer, chief investigator for Sheriff Dan Tehan said marking tickets, pay sheets and odds boards were seized at the Fairfax tavern and Kruse's Smoke shop.

Three men were arrested in the two raids on charges of setting up and operating a game of chance.

Sheriff's deputies and Acton raided the nite spot and hotze's drug store in suburban Reading. Meyer said they seized five slot machines, four in the nite spot and one in the drug store.

Acton was along on the two raids but could take no action since neither establishment had a liquor license.

City councilman Jesse D. Locker meanwhile announced he would ask council to request the Ohio legislature to license gambling in the state. He said his request would be submitted at the council meeting next week.

All flour used for baking cakes, whether it is all-purpose or cake flour, should be sifted before measuring.

Blame Shifted In Neglect Case

Hearing of a charge of neglect against a Roseland father brought out in county juvenile court yesterday that the mother was more to blame than the father, Judge Stuart H. Cramer said.

The charge against the father, Ivan Stevens, 36, will be dismissed, while the mother, Mrs. Helen Stevens, will be cited, Judge Cramer said. The couple has five children.

Judge Cramer said the mother has more supervision over the children since the father is away most of the time.

Stevens was accused by John H. Eisaman, city schools attendance officer, with contributing to the neglect and delinquency of his children by not keeping them in school.

Ohio Bell Gets Boost

COLUMBUS —(AP)— The State Utilities commission today granted the Ohio Bell Telephone company rate increases averaging about nine per cent.

The increases were made effective immediately after the utility files new schedules under an order approved unanimously by the commission.

The higher rates, averaging increases from 25 to 30 cents a month per customer, will be on April bills. Commission Chairman Harry M. Miller said the increases apply to 170 phone exchanges in about half the counties of Ohio. All metropolitan cities except Cincinnati are excepted.

(Representatives of Ohio Bell said the rate increases would have no effect in Mansfield since they apply only to business and residental service. All such service in the city is provided by the Mansfield Telephone company which uses Ohio Bell facilities only for long distance calls.)

Fund Drive $5,000 Short

Two days and more than $5,000 to go was the report from Red Cross headquarters today. Receipts in the drive totaled $43,451.40.

This figure included $6,370.56 from Shelby. Shelby is nearer its goal of $6,500 than Mansfield and Richland county, Glenn L. Bierly, campaign chairman, said today.

"We are positive we'll make our goal, but township reports are slow in coming in and we need their funds to reach the quota of $48,835," Bierly said.

Mrs. Lawrence Powell, chairman, reported from Precinct G in the Sixth ward a total of $119 with a quota of $110.

TB Infected 'Pig' Recovered

TB or if the tests were negative.

The two boys who stole the animal Sunday night have a dozen or more other animals at their home, Copeland said.

He added that the danger of the other animals (or of humans who had been in contact with them) being infected was very remote, but that if tests on the guinea pig prove positive, precautionary measures will be taken.

Mansfielder Denies Theft, Bound Over

Held to Jury Under $1,500 Bond

William J. Schlegel, 349 High street, arraigned in municipal court today on a charge of grand larceny entered a plea of innocent and waived preliminary hearing.

He was bound to the grand jury on $1,500 bond by Municipal Judge H. H. Schettler.

Schlegel was charged with stealing a radio and jewelry valued at $61.50 from A. J. Myers, 26½ East Fifth street.

Paul Ward, Toledo, pleaded guilty to stealing three electric irons from the Martin Hardware store, 19 North Main street, and was sentenced to 30-days in the county jail.

Detectives testified that Ward stole the irons on three separate trips to the store and later sold all three to Mansfield second-hand stores. The irons were valued at $24.25.

Roy Grier, Wise street, entered a plea of innocent to a charge of assault and battery and Judge Schettler continued the case until tomorrow at the request of the city solicitor. Bond was set at $500.

Hearing of an assault and battery charge against Sterling Searborough, 56 East Sixth street, was continued to April 21. At that same time he will face charges of keeping a house of ill fame at 97 East Sixth street.

He was arrested on the assault and battery charge March 25 on an affidavit signed by Thomas J. Scott. A day later police filed charges of keeping a house of ill fame.

The continuance was granted because of the absence of Scarborough's attorney.

Kaiser-Frazer Lowers Prices

DETROIT — (AP) — Kaiser-Frazer corporation slashed its car prices today—the auto industry's second price cut within a month's time.

Simultaneously, Kaiser-Frazer announced a change in top management.

The price cuts ranged from $198 up to $333 on K-F's various models, by far the largest of any cuts in the industry since the end of the war.

The company said it was "entering a broader mass market" and was "offering the public the lowest priced big cars in the world."

Coupled with the price cut was the elevation of Edgar F. Kaiser to the presidency of Kaiser-Frazer.

CROWD SIDLES UP FOR NICKEL BEER—'Twas a balmy springtime evening, and a goodly crowd was there—but it soon became a small mob when word got around that Sam's Place, down in New York's lower East Side section, was doling out five-cent beer. In no time at all, the place was loaded—or filled, might be the proper word—with customers attracted by the news that nickel "suds" was back. Here's a close-up of the historic occasion.—(International)

Christ Seen As Lone Hope For Peace

The only peace the world will ever know is to be found through belief in Jesus Christ, Rev. Jack Shuler told a capacity crowd at Johnny Appleseed auditorium last night. It was the 11th in the series of evangelistic meetings being held here.

"There are nations at war today," Rev. Shuler declared, "but there is a time coming when the world will know no war for a thousand years, during the earthly reign of the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords."

"Though winds may blow and waves my roll, there is nothing so restless as a human soul apart from God," Rev. Shuler said. "If we were as humble as we ought to be, we would all be in the center of God's will."

Rev. Shuler's subject for tonight is "Out on a limb," Les Barnett, who spent 12 years in Hollywood and helped produce a number of movies, will tell his story tomorrow night.

Noon-day services at the First Presbyterian church will continue from 12 to 12:50 each day through Friday, Rev. Charles L. Shook, general chairman, said.

Arraignment Set

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Herbert John Burgman, the 25th American indicted for treason because of World War II activities, will be arraigned Friday in district court her.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Registering Of Bikes To Start

Sign-Up Scheduled To Begin Saturday

Bike riders in Mansfield will begin registering their bikes Saturday at the police garage on Walnut street.

The city has been divided into four zones for registration purposes. Zones covering the area north of Park avenue west and east of Main street, will register from 9 a. m. to noon Saturday, April 2.

Dates for registration of the other three zones will be announced later by police.

There will be a 25-cent registration fee and bike riders who live outside the city limits, and do not ride their bikes in Mansfield, may register on a voluntary basis. Anyone who rides a bike in Mansfield must have it registered, officers warned.

Police said the registration protects the owner against the theft of his bike and helps police recover stolen bikes.

In case of rain, Saturday's registration will be postponed, police said.

Registration of bikes this year will be more closely regulated through a YMCA bicycle court which will fine violators: A city ordinance provides a penalty for those who fail to register their bicycles.

Police said bike riders are subject to penalty by law the same as operators of motor vehicles.

Reed Company Gets Cline Avenue House

The H. L. Reed company has completed the purchase of a warehouse at 284 Cline avenue, J. W. Cook, vice president of the firm, said today.

The building has been used by the company as a carpet warehouse and repair room for about a year, Cook said. The property was purchased from Henry Bechtel, 167 Glessner avenue.

Whistling at Girl Blamed In Knife Attack, Shooting

Mansfield police today sought two men believed to have been involved in a stabbing and shooting Sunday morning on North Main street.

The argument that led to the stabbing apparently started over a girl at whom someone was supposed to have whistled, officers said.

Police learned of the incident when Carl Bauer, 155 North Walnut street, came to the station bleeding from a deep knife slash on his left arm.

Bauer, accompanied by Conrad Heidecker, 341 South Main street, said he had stopped his car in Walnut alley, off North Main street, when two men came up to the car and started an argument. The argument, Bauer later explained, was over the question of who whistled at a girl standing in a doorway just north of the alley on North Main street.

Bauer said he and Heidecker had stopped in the alley to turn around and were conversing with some acquaintances on the street, when two men crossed North Main and asked them who whistled at the girl.

Bauer told police the other man, standing at the corner, walked on and that he and Heidecker tried to convince the men that they had not whistled.

At that point, one of the men, according to Bauer, opened the car door, stabbed Bauer on the left arm, and then fired two shots at the car as Bauer hurriedly left the scene.

Bauer was treated at General hospital for the stab wound and released.

Spring Makes Us Think Of New Furnishings

By ELEANOR ROSS

SHAFTS of sunlight glinting into the house bring with them thoughts of new drapes, new wall coverings, and in general new furnishings throughout the house. Most of us will be glad to settle for something new be it draperies, the living room done over, or perhaps a new piece of furniture There are beautiful things in the stores right now, at prices that are sensible, too, considering the times, and the excellence of the products.

For the walls one house comes through with beautiful wallpaper that has a flat finish but all the virtues of a shiny finish, in that it is stainproof and takes to a washing with soap and water all due to a synthetic resin that has saturated the colors used. The patterns are exquisite and there are designs and colors for every room in the house, for every type of decor. Many of the designs are the work of famous artists. Magnificent hand-printed chintzes and satin-like cotton weaves that simply glow are included in the Spring line-up of a famous household fabric firm.

VERNAL TOUCH

For a real vernal touch how about draperies in white with a design of large lily bouquets blue and flamingo pink with deep green leaves, the drapery swag lining in a matching shade of flamingo? A green cotton textured rug and a chair upholstered in flamingo cotton in a bright, shining weave completed a handsome hall setting at a recent showing.

Modern Swedish pieces are attracting much attention whenever shown. An excellent piece, a good choice in a small interior is a round revolving dining table, that, when not in regular use, can be lowered to coffee table height It comes with two leaves that extend it to a generous oval, and all in all, is a very new and different design

A very handsome dining room group is in circassian walnut with platinum finish, done in a veneer - like interlacing lattice pattern.

For those of us that can't go a nice new rug just now there's a neat consolation prize in the form of a really wonderful underlay, rubber, over quarter of an inch thick.

Horoscope

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

For Wednesday, March 30

A MOST promising and progressive state of affairs, well on the way to outstanding accomplishment and rich rewards, may be suddenly brought to an impasse by a false move, an error in judgment, an urge to take chances, or some impulsive gesture which will "upset the apple cart" hampering and thwarting ambitious plans and projects. Others, with ulterior motives, may be quick to rush in with shrewd or sinister ideas, ready to reap the profits of alluring foundations already laid. Beware all strange or "fishy tales seemingly sound and friendly on the surface.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is are urged to be particularly keen and alert to protect and develop the progressive and highly promising status of current operations and programs, well on the way to rich and surprising culminations All may be thriving when an error of judgment, a desire to make changes, "to better the best" or an emotional or erratic urge might have the force of "throwing a hammer into the works." Sinister forces, with deep-laid plots and plans, may come to the rescue with subtle approach but with evil intent Beware "the soft touch," sweet words, all shapes of intrigue and treachery.

A child born on this day may be richly blessed with talents.

PAGE SIX MANSFIELD, OHIO, TUESDAY, MARCH 29, 1949

Word comes that crackpot fads are flourishing in Japan—the California influence, no doubt.

One observer comments: "What was laziness during the winter is now becoming spring fever."

Among other "weeks", it is announced that from April 1 to 8 has been designated as "National Leave Us Alone week", in combination with National Laugh week—but observance is not expected to be general.

Missing Link In City Park System

CHANGES that have come about in Mansfield within the past few decades are reflected in various ways—one being the retrogression of what has been known at one time and another as Casino or Luna park, a privately owned link with the city park system in the western part of the city.

This park, now being offered for sale, was once an attractive amusement spot, with a casino offering popular stock company plays during the summer season; a roller coaster: merry-go-round; shooting galleries and a wide variety of entertainment features.

During the rather long era of street car transportation a spur from the West Fourth street line ran to the entrance to Casino park and enjoyed excellent patronage for evening shows and daytime picnic parties. The coming of automobiles, however, and the advent of motion pictures, brought changes which eventually resulted in abandonment of street car lines, substitution of bus service, and waning of popularity of Casino park as an amusement center.

In recent years this acreage has had a rundown appearance, with little prospect of improvement unless it becomes a part of the city park system—which it should be.

With a swimming pool already on the property, meeting a need in that part of the city, and with an active North Lake Park association naturally interested in furthering such a project, it would appear that some plan can be formulated whereby this area will be added to the present park system and restored to creditable appearance and beneficial use.

Test Case Against Tax Evaders

IT MAY BE that a new device has been found for combatting evasion of state sales and excise taxes by means of purchases by mail from points in other states. The problem most often occurs with cigaret taxes, which vary from state to state, a few having no tax at all and some having high levies.

There always is some difficulty with clandestine movement of cigarets from tax-free points into high-tax states for bootleg sale without tax. Except at busy border points, it is not easy actually to carry the contraband across the state line, but sales by mail are harder to prevent.

It is not established mail order houses which cause trouble, as they usually collect whatever state taxes are indicated for the states in which they do business. But smaller establishments sometimes have deliberately capitalized on tax-free sales by mail in states where the tax is high enough to make evasion seem worth while.

Now a federal grand jury at New Orleans has indicted four men, accused of evading Louisiana tax by buying cigarets by mail in Missouri. The federal charge is using the mails to defraud the state of Louisiana of its tax revenues. If the case holds up, something new will have been added to the collection of state taxes.

Another point which is unusual, although not new, in the policing of illegal sales is that this device would offer threat of punishment to the buyer of contraband, whereas usually only the seller now needs fear the hand of the law.

Death Takes Veteran Realtor

A FAMILIAR figure is removed from the Mansfield scene by the death of Gaylord W. Bahl, sr., who, for the past fifty years had been active in the real estate business here and who was among the best known citizens of this community.

Born in Mansfield, Mr. Bahl's boyhood was spent here, but later the family moved to Toledo and afterward to Minneapolis. It was not until 1898, after service in the Spanish-American war, that Mr. Bahl returned to Mansfield to open a real estate office, in which he continued until failing health necessitated retirement.

During his years of activity Mr. Bahl was associated with a number of this community's development projects and his faith in Mansfield's future was an outstanding characteristic, with untiring energy and persistence as factors which were recognized by all who knew him.

Postal Substations Appreciated

ANNOUNCEMENT of intention to open a postal substation in the southwest part of Mansfield is in accord with the trend toward providing convenient post office facilities in various sections of cities and also to lighten the overburden on the main post office.

With four substations already in operation, and a fifth in prospect, this convenience is appreciated by residents living at a considerable distance from the post office, and it may be assumed that others will be added as the need develops.

With atomic power taking the place of so many other things, how will people get enough exercise to keep them in good condition? Perhaps the next need will be for an atomic exercising machine.

Washington Calling

Rents Trend Upward

By MARQUIS CHILDS

IT IS LIKE seeing an old newsreel played over again. History does repeat itself and in a strikingly exact sort of way.

Unless the new rent control bill is drastically rewritten in conference between the two houses. President Truman is going to be faced with a tough decision. The question—to veto or not to veto—is like the one he faced when Congress passed and sent to the White House in 1946 a bill cutting the heart out of OPA.

The President vetoed the first bill renewing OPA in such an enfeebled fashion that, as he said in his veto message, it was worse than nothing. The second he signed when his leaders in the Senate and House told him he could get nothing better and it was sign or let OPA die.

That, it will be recalled, was when the enemies of OPA were insisting that decontrol would inevitably mean lower prices.

For 18 days, before the second emasculated measure became law, there were no controls. They were never effectively restored and the cost of living began to soar upward.

A lot of the same kind of double talk has come out in connection with rent control. The President's chief advisers are supplying him with facts which they believe show (1) that the net effect of senate and house decontrol amendments is to shatter rent control and (2) that the shattering of rent control will further throw the nation's economy out of balance.

* * *

Creeping Upward.

UNDER the various concessions made to landlords, many of them justified in a great number of instances, rents have been slowly creeping upward during the past year. Rents were at an all-time peak for the most recent month—January—for which figures are available.

The index on rent for January of this year was four points higher than in January of 1948. From November to December of last year the index jumped almost a point. This, mind you, was under present rent control.

The analysis reaching the President's desk shows that this rise has tended to wipe out the slight drop in the cost of food that occurred since the all-time peak in the cost of living last August. Rent is 15 to 20 percent of the budget of the average householder.

The net decline in the cost of living since the peak has been only two percent. It is still 73 percent above the prewar base.

It requires no genius in economics and statistics to see what will happen if rent control is shattered or abolished. Estimates are that it would advance from 5 to 9 percent a month over a period of several months to a year. This would mean an advance in the cost of living index of 1 to 1½ percent a month.

Again neither a genius nor a crystal-gazer is necessary to forecast what would happen under such an advance. It would touch off new wage demands which could very well start the inflationary spiral upward.

This would come at a time when a number of low income families have already been priced out of the market. In short, it would encourage the kind of inflation-deflation that invites depression.

Faced with the March 31 deadline, when rent controls expire, the administration has shown extraordinarily bad timing. Bringing up the civil-rights issue at the start of the session precipitated the southern filibuster. That was ready-made for the persistent, powerful, tireless real estate lobby.

Millions of families are watching anxiously to see what Congress does about rent control. They may not understand the talk about states decontrolling or cities decontrolling. But they will certainly understand when the landlord hikes the rent 10 percent or 25 percent. They will know that postwar history is repeating itself in a peculiary grim and unpleasant fashion.

Frankly Speaking

ABC On New Labor Bill

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — Here's an ABC outline on the bill which Congress will tackle in voting a new labor law.

It's the one which the Truman administration wants passed.

But it's still only a bill, not the new law. Congress may make big changes in the bill before letting it become law.

This bill wipes out the 1947 Taft-Hartley act and, with a few additions, brings back the old Wagner act of 1935.

This was the main difference between the Wagner act and T-H:

1. The Wagner Act said a man could not be fired for joining a union; it said a boss had to bargain with his employes' union: and it set up the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) to protect the employes' rights.

In short the Wagner Act put restrictions on an employer but none at all on his employes.

2. T-H adopted that part of the Wagner Act but—then it put a number of restrictions on unions, plus new restrictions on employers.

In short, T-H put restrictions on employers and unions, but put more restrictions on unions than they ever had before.

The present bill—going back to the Wagner Act and wiping out T-H—removes almost all restrictions on unions but leaves the old Wagner Act restrictions on an employer. For example:

* * *

Weakens Restraints.

T-H BANNED union political spending; required union leaders to swear they were not communists if they wanted the protection of the law for their unions; it required unions to bargain in good faith with an employer; and it outlawed the closed shop. In a closed shop an employer can hire only union members.

The present bill wipes out all those things. It requires a boss to bargain in good faith with a union but it doesn't require a union to bargain in good faith with an employer. And, further—

The bill would nullify state laws which banned the closed shop or any other form of compulsory union membership.

The bill would add these things to the Wagner act:

Jurisdictional strikes—. The bill outlaws them. So did T-H. The Wagner Act permitted them.

(A jurisdictional strike is one in which a couple of unions quarrel with each other over doing a certain job. They have no quarrel with the employer but one of them strikes to make him do business with it.)

Secondary boycotts—the bill outlaws one kind. T-H outlawed them generally. The Wagner Act permitted them.

A secondary boycott means a union, having a dispute with a company, tries to stop other companies from doing business with that one.

The present bill doesn't bar such boycotts except when they are an attempt to force an employer, who already had a contract with another union, to do business with the union causing the boycott.

National emergency strikes—The bill has no outright ban on a union's striking, even if it endangers the general welfare. But it would let the President ask that there be no strike for 30 days while he sets up a board to investigate the dispute.

(The Wagner Act permitted any kind of strike. But T-H could prevent a national emergency strike for 80 days by giving the government power to get a court order, or injunction, to stop the strike that long.)

But it will work out in time . . . a month, a year, four years.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Pan Am Airways Lobbies By Free Rides

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON. — Pan American Airways not only operates airplanes to many corners of the world, but it operates lobbying activities to almost every corner of Washington. Free rides, fancy dinner parties, special airplanes at the disposal of senators and newspapermen are part of the way Pan American has helped to get lush air routes and fat mail subsidies.

The other day, however, Pan Am pulled a new wrinkle. It has half a dozen important cases pending before the Civil Aeronautics Board. While waiting decision on these cases Pan Am staged a junket for some of the top government men who will pass on them.

In Pan Am's latest luxury liner, a Boeing stratocruiser, Oswald Ryan, vice chairman of the CAB, plus four CAB officials flew to Miami, basked in the sun for three days, spent little money, ostensibly inspected Pan Am's Miami base.

With Ryan went: Warner Hord, chief of the accounting and rates division; William Cusick, CAB examiner; Frank Crozier, special adviser on route matters; William Andrews, chief of the accident investigation bureau; Ed Slattery, CAB's publicity chief.

Queried about details of this "inspection," the CAB claimed it was "routine." Just why the CAB permits its employes to accept favors from the same corporations CAB is charged by law to regulate remains a mystery.

However, there would be less corporate subsidy of government employes if Congress would increase the pitifully inadequate travel allowance now paid them.

Atomic Energy Safeguard.

JOHN L. LEWIS'S control of the nation's coal production is well known, but what few people realize is that the burly boss of the mine workers also wields life-and-death power over the government's atomic energy.

This fact is behind the government's proposal to build a gas pipeline into the Oak Ridge, Tenn., atomic energy plant, so that plant can be supplied with gas as well as coal.

Some significant testimony has gone into the record since the East Tennessee Natural Gas company, supported by the Atomic Energy Commission, applied for a certificate for the pipeline.

At a recent Federal Power Commission hearing, Walter J. Williams, atomic production chief, was telling about the coal shortage at Oak Ridge in the 1946, 1947 and early 1948 period, during which Lewis called out the miners five times.

"If we hadn't got a lot of breaks in getting coal at that time, the Oak Ridge plant would have been completely closed down in the spring of 1948," Williams grimly admitted.

Tom McGrath, an attorney representing Lewis and coal producers, who are jointly fighting the gas pipeline, asked Williams if he still would feel the need of installing gas if the AEC was assured of an equally good supply of coal.

"If we felt we had that assurface, we would never have taken up this problem," replied Williams.

"The security of all the people," added the atomic official with biting emphasis, "overrides the interests of any one group."

NOTE— Atomic energy officials estimate that $1,228,000 a year would be saved if Oak Ridge substituted gas for coal in toto. However, the plan is to use both, not to eliminate coal entirely.

Morse Speaks His Mind.

THE Republican national committee got a sharp ear-boxing from liberal Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon at a recent secret session of GOP senators. Furthermore, Ohio's conservative Bob Taft, who is poles apart with Morse on most things, backed the Oregonian to the limit.

"I'm fed up with having the national committee dictate to members of Congress on legislative policy," Morse angrily told his colleagues. "In many states committee members aren't even elected, like we are. They are appointed by courthouse gangs, and do not express rank-and-file sentiment.

"We've got to restore public confidence in the Republican party and it's obvious we will get no help from the national committee," the Oregonian continued. "I've got an election fight next year, in which I intend to take my own position on public issues, not the committee's.

"The same goes for this new senatorial campaign committee (headed by GOP Senator Owen Brewster of Maine and ex-Senator John Townsend of Delaware)," concluded Morse. "I'm going to make it clear that I don't want any money or help from this committee if it is conditioned on the committee telling me how to run my campaign."

A number of colleagues seconded Morse's views, among them Taft, who jumped to his feet and announced:

"I'm in complete agreement with the gentleman on both points he raised."

Assignment: America

That Huge King Ranch

By INEZ ROBB

(Editor's Note: This is the first of five articles by Inez Robb describing the vastness and wonders of the King ranch in Texas—so huge that at its extremes even the climate differs.)

* * *

KING RANCH, Kingsville, Texas, — The marvels of Texas never end. Everything is bigger and better in the Lone Star state, and that includes one of the state's authentic wonders, the legendary King Ranch.

The ranch is even bigger than the legend and the facts more astounding than the fictions that have made this domain a part of American folklore.

Big as all out-doors, for sure: That's the King Ranch. Bigger'n "poor little Rhode Island," with its measly 770,000 acres compared with the King's sprawling 950,000 plus.

It's so big that when the owners wish a change of climate, they need only journey from the nothern to the southern extremity of the ranch. Or vice versa. Between the two extremities, there is a month's difference in the season!

There are so many things to do and so many things to see on this fief, that a panting reporter could work here a year and not see the half of it. Even a brief visit left me bogged down in facts and figures.

Let's look at some of the statistics. This is still the largest beef producing ranch, estancia or hacienda in the world.

Its acres, not always contiguous, are divided into four main divisions and flow through six counties along the Gulf of Mexico in south Texas. In the Laureles division alone, there are 256,000 acres. And, ingle "pastures" run as big as 35,000 to 50,000 acres each.

Livestock on the ranch includes more than 80,000 head of beef cattle, a two-year-old doe that bounds like a dog at the heels of the little boys who own it, 3,000 quarter horses (the ultimate in cow ponies) and one of the finest racing stables in America. After presenting a letter from my pastor, I was permitted to feed a carrot to Assault and scratch the nose of Bold Venture, both winners of the Kentucky Derby.

* * *

Guided By Compasses.

WHILE I am still floundering in statistics, let me slip in the fact that there are vaqueros or Mexican-American cowboys by the score (about 250 in all), some 1,500 miles of fence and about 250 motor vehicles. The latter range from special stripped down cars designed for hunting on the range to motorized chuck wagons and the heaviest kind of road building equipment.

Compasses are standard equipment on ranch automobiles, to guide owners and work parties safely home after a day in the field. Some months ago, ranch hands who were clearing some of the mesquite and huisache-covered land discovered an automobile lost serveral years before by a hunting party.

The men, who go out to hunt on foot, never could find their way back to the car. The ranch swallowed it up and it was only by accident that the clearing party uncovered it.

The game preserve on the "lower ranch" or Norias division is alive with wild turkeys, deer and game birds and probably constitutes the largest wild life preserve in the United States.

Artesian wells and windmills on the ranch produce enough water daily for a city of 25,000 persons. And the King domain not only includes wild and lonely stretches uninhabited by man, but a bustling modern little town of 15,000, known as Kingsville.

All this—and oil, too!

Experts suspect that under the ranch's sweeping acreage lies one of Texas' new major oil pools. They believe it may prove as lush as the great East Texas field, which has made new millionaires faster than they can count their money.

Farmer's Diary

A Persistent Writer

By CALVIN A. BYERS

TODAY I received a letter from a Coshocton nurseryman, who is a determined, stubborn old fellow. When he sets out to do something he keeps at it, I mean. How do I know?

The letter had three envelopes. The first was postmarked January 26, and had been sent to Byesville, Ohio and returned "Addressee unknown." The second envelope was bigger, and the first letter was enclosed.

He addressed it that time, to me at Bellevue, Ohio. His writing was shaky and penciled, but clear and legible. Since I do not live in Bellevue, the second letter had been returned also, "Unknown—not for city 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, not for R. D. 1, 2, 3, 4." Below all that he had written in red pencil "Had a hard time locating you."

Then he put it in the third envelope and sent it off again, this time to BELLVILLE, Ohio. I received it March 17—lucky day for the Irish. Only, if I'm any judge, this man is Dutch.

By now you're wondering what he had to say? He had read my column about "probity" in the fruit-growing business, and having handled nursery stock for near 30 years he had checked it by his own experience and found it "very good."

"The word 'probity', he wrote "is a good word, full of fine meaning. The best friends I have—and I have many among those who bought stock from me—had good ground to plant in and did the job well. Some other buyers that did not have good ground did not do a good job of planting, or took poor care (if any) after planting. . .they are not so friendly toward me. I'm sorry."

"Very few people know about root pruning. They would not take stock in it, if you explained it to them. Yet that is very important, in my mind's eye. Most people think they know better than the nurseryman and carry out their own plans—then blame the nursery company if things do not do well.

"I believe in probity! If you do not intend to take good care of nursery stock, you'd better not buy any! That is not good sales talk, is it?"

Yours respectfully,
D. B. Reiss.

On the back of every invoice sent out by Reiss are complete planting directions from care of stock on arrival through planting, pruning, mulching, drainage, staking, labels and cultivation. (Thank you kindly, sir. Write again sometime.)

Just a Spoiled Child.

So what if Margaret O'Brien has supported her mother for years? Does that give the kid the right to veto her mother's happiness?

This question is prompted by the news from London that the child actress still is angry with her mother for marrying a band leader, Don Sylvio, without permission. Of course, it's Mrs. Sylvio's fault. If she hadn't pampered her meal ticket, she could have married whom she pleased.

It's the public's fault, too, for having made such an idol of the child that her opinion of her stepfather is page one news. Now that she has turned out to be a spoiled brat, perhaps public opinion will permit Mrs. Sylvio to mend Margaret's manners with a hairbrush.—Akron Beacon Journal.

Plan Wedding Buffet For Your Reception

At your wedding reception, regardless of the time of day, serve easy-to-plan buffet refreshments.

At any reception, formal or informal, a buffet is entirely proper, CHARM says, and it is easier to serve and less expensive than a sit-down breakfast on an elaborate dinner The menu can be built around one fairly substantial dish, such as chicken a la king, lobster Newburg, or, at an early breakfast, scrambled eggs with sausages

Champagne is the customary beverage at the wedding reception, but a sauterne or a May wine punch is an excellent alternative All you need for table decorations is the frothy white pyramid of wedding cake.

Monosodium glutamate is quite a mouthful of words. But, with skillful use, it can help to give your family many a mouthful of delectable food, according to the April issue of House Beautiful magazine. Calling it "an old oriental seasoning that intensifies food flavor without changing it," the magazine explains how MSG "performs palate miracles by opening your taste-buds so they become hyper-sensitive." The article also gives the half-dozen trade names under which it is sold.

'Trouble-Makers' Remark Fails To Hide Truman-Congress Fiasco

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S attack on the punching-dummy which he labelled "the trouble-makers" would be comic if he were a mayor of Chicago in a squalid scuffle with the city council.

But, coming from the President of the United States at the start of a four-year term, this poor attempt to blame some imaginary force for the defeat which he suffered at the hands of his own party's 81st Congress is pathetic and ominous. The people of the United States are stuck with this ignorant alumnus of the political underworld of Kansas city and must take full responsibility for all he does and pay the penalty for his deliberate misconduct and earnest failures.

Ordinarily the partisan opposition would delight in the rout of the president in office, but few Americans can close their minds to the fact that this man's errors might be calamities weighing on us all.

Mr. Truman has tried to represent his licking by his own Congress as no licking at all but a serene working of the American system and to blame "the trouble-makers" for spreading the popular impression that he did get licked.

Truman had never shown any interest in any of the proposals lumped together as "civil rights" during his schooling years in the Pendergast criminal machine in Kansas city. With his knowledge, assuming that he was not a drooling imbecile, this mob stole elections by stuffing the ballot boxes through several standard methods, all of them felonious.

It does not appear thay any person was denied his right to vote and his right that his vote should be counted in determining the result because of the person's race or religion. But thousands were thus offended for the reason that they detested the vicious pack of divekeepers, prostitutes, drug-peddlers and common gunmen who were Harry Truman's henchmen.

And, down to the very end, Mr. Truman fought to keep his corrupt idol and chief out of prison for his crimes against the civil rights of the community.

★

ACTUALLY, Truman's ignorance of the importance and function of Congress was demonstrated in frightening fashion soon after the Democratic convention last summer.

Truman called the 80th Congress into special session for no other purpose than to discredit the legislative arm of the government. He picked a fight not only with the 80th Congress which the Republicans controlled by choice of the voters, but Congress itself, as an institution.

At the special session he delivered a stilted, painfully dishonest speech over the heads of the Congress of the United States to his partisan adherency and the feeling against him was so bitter that he entered the chamber in almost dead silence and left it in shame. Only three hands reached out to shake his hand as he walked up the aisle and out.

So the defeat of the Truman social and civil affectations by the 81st session of the Congress of the United States, was a licking for Harry S. Truman.

He picked the fight and forgot to duck and got his brains knocked out and it was no dirty doing of any columnists or commentators but a proper comeuppance for an impudent incompetent who has twice admitted publicly since the first of the year that there probably are a million men in the United States who could do his job better.

Use of Time-Worn Gags Threatens Current Revival of Vaudeville

THE CURRENT resurgence of vaudeville will be a temporary phenomenon if the performers insist on reviving the material that sent it to oblivion. Some comics never change theirs. One of them is still telling a dated gag about "Abie's Irish Rose".

Ingrid Bergman says she is self-conscious about her height. Imagine anyone with all her attributes being self-conscious about anything. . .A current flicker from France is only six hours long. . .The way the N. Y. Times reports Mae's hip-grinding: "Miss West's distinctive undulations" . . .Item in the papers I don't believe ever was said: That Miss Bankhead used the phrase, "Pravda is full of prune-juice!"

Broadway signery that holds the orbs: The enormous portrait of Jennifer Jones painted on the Rivoli. . .Yappiest telecast is the 5-minute celebrity-interview which wastes 3 minutes on commershills. . .Dinah Shore's blues-cooing always relieves you of yours. . ."The Red Pony" is one of the slicker boy-meets-horse sagas because the scenario was embroidered by John Steinbeck.

The squawk by some of the Hollywood writers that they were "let go" after testifying against some of the alleged Reds is weakened by the fact that Sam Wood, who also stood up to be counted, is still on the MGM payroll. . .Movie patrons won't stand for this sortathing much longer: Esther Williams strips down to her swimsuit for just a mere one-quick-dip in the film, "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" . . .Grace Hartman's biggest laugh in the Mary Margaret McBride travesty (in "All for Love") is the line: "Next to entertainment, I like television test."

Shows come and go but none offers more belt-buckle guffaws than "Born Yesterday". . .Rita Hayworth's father (in an article) defends her galivanting. . .Talk about Dreamboats: Have you adored Patricia Morison in "Kiss Me, Kate?" Such a face! . . .Alexis Smith comes through with flying Technicolors. Her emerald orbs and red tresses make a terrific parlay for the Miss Wonderful sweepstakes.

Two of the plays that appear to be surviving the critical frowns: "Madwoman of Chaillot" and "The Big Knife". . . The ditty, "A Rosewood Spinet," is popular, but they are plugging it into an early tomb. . .Little Margaret O'Brien saw herself in "Little Women" for the second time, and while grownups choked with emotion she was in stitches.

You-Can-Never-Tell Item: "Life with Father" was an all-time stage-gusher and the film version was serenaded by the reviewers. Yet it was a box office disappointment. . .Jonathan Lucas, the new dancing star at the Copa, disguised himself as a Jap and got behind their lines The wounds he suffered hospitalized him for many months.

Fail to Find Hospital Fire

Firemen from No. 3 station searched every nook and cranny of General hospital for more than three hours last night after they were called to the hospital at 9:15 p. m. when a smoke odor was detected by hospital attaches

Wayne Copeland, superintendent of the hospital, today complimented the vigilance of the night force at the hospital and said summoning firemen was a "precautionary measure."

Copeland said the odor of burning material was detected in the first floor room, directly above the kitchen and it was believed insulation was on fire. He said firemen and hospital maintenance crew worked past midnight searching for any sign of fire.

Neighbors in the vicinity, who gave police the description of the youth, said they saw the boy leave the shop with something that resembled a sword.

Berlo said the theft occurred while he was in the second floor of his shop. He said the bayonet had hung in the first floor shop at his home since World War I.

Man Held In Attack

Rail Worker Suffers Fractured Skull

Two Mansfield area men were held in county jail today, one after he had allegedly struck a Pennsylvania railroad camp employe, fracturing his skull. The other man was traced through the license number of his car by Bellville residents who said he had been prowling at their home

No charges have been filed against either man. The man held in the attack on the railroad worker, Alonzo Beal, 49, is employed as a railroad camp cook at the Pennsylvania camp on Oak street road.

Deputies said the camp cook told them Beal broke down the door and smashed the glass to the cook's quarters Saturday night and demanded food. Witnesses to the fracas told deputies the cook then hit Beal with a poker.

The alleged prowler, a 26-year-old Bellville man, was held for investigation after deputies traced his license number, given them by a family living on Route 97 west of Bellville. The family said the prowler appeared at their home at 12:30 a. m. today.

City Tavern Permits Exceed State Quota

Mansfield has 23 establishments selling whisky by the drink under a D-3 license, which is four more places than is permissible under the 1940 census, according to state liquor board figures.

Nineteen night clubs are operating in the city, the exact number permitted under the 1940 census figures. Private club licenses number 13, six less than would be permitted.

Richland county is permitted 41 each of D-3, night club and private club licenses.

The county has 42 establishments operating under D-3 licenses, 19 private clubs, and 27 night clubs.

The county is one over on D-3's but has fewer night clubs and private clubs than would be permitted under the 1940 census figures.

In all, 21 Ohio counties have more D-3 bar permits that they are entitled to under the census figures.

The state liquor law allows one night club permit for each 2,000 population and one bar permit for each 1500 population.

Counties listed as having both more bar and more night club permits than they should have under the 1940 census were Ashtabula, Erie, Jefferson, Lorain, Summit, Trumbull, Cuyahoga and Hamilton.

Counties listed as having an excess of bar permits were Richland, Allen, Butler, Huron, Licking, Mahoning, Lucas, Marion, Montgomery, Ottawa, Portage, Sandusky and Stark.

CALL ME A TAXI—

A British visitor to Mansfield is taking quite a kidding about her long taxi ride from Windsor, Canada. A little more than a week ago, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Miller, 648 Yale drive, received a call from Windsor. Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. Alfred Witherow, was on the other end of the line. She had just arrived by plane from Vancouver. "Never mind coming up for me," Mrs. Witherow told her daughter, "I'll just take a taxi down." Mrs. Miller, a bit startled by the casualness, explained that it would be quite a long drive. The Millers went to Windsor to meet her. After a week's stay in the U. S., Mrs. Witherow is now beginning to realize that the U. S. is a pretty big place. A life-long native of the Fiji islands, she had been in America only once before — that time in 1937 when she took a short train trip through after attending the coronation of the king of England. The Millers plan to show Mrs. Witherow more of this vast country by October when she will leave again for her home.

Ford Tells Club of Needs

Time-Saving Plan Offered

Acting Postmaster Curtis L. Ford suggests new and different type sub-stations as one means of breaking the log jam at the Mansfield post office.

Speaking before the Mansfield Exchange club yesterday, Ford said classified sub-stations from which postmen could work might be necessary if the city does not get its proposed new downtown post office within a reasonable time.

Now, all postmen work out of the main post office.

A point in favor of classified stations is that less time is spent by the postman "deadheading," between the post office and their routes, Ford said. "Deadheading" is the term used by postmen for the wasted time spent in traveling to their routes.

With classified sub-stations the men would work from the office nearest the neighborhood of their route.

Ford explained the classified is different from the contract sub-stations, now in operation at four locations throughout the city, in that the classified substation would provide complete mail facilities for the postmen's routes.

Since 1914 the Mansfield population has trebled and the postal workers have been increased to 120, but the volume of mail is more than six times the amount handled in 1914, Ford said.

More postal employes is not the only answer, he said. Lack of space is the major hindrance to efficient mail handling, he added. Mail clerks are virtually climbing over one another in their work at the post office, Ford declared.

County Plans Vehicle Sale

Seven motorized vehicles will go on sale at a public auction April 16 at 10 a. m. at the Richland county garage.

Among the items to be sold are a 1936 power shovel, a 1936 Chevrolet half-ton pick-up truck, a 1941 Galion road partol, a 1942 Plymouth two-door car, a 1941 Reo one and one-half ton dump truck, and 1939 Dodge four-door sedan, and a 1937 Harley-Davidson motorcycle.
